Just like the Greenstamp books from the 60's! Visit the exhibitors shown in the book at their Trade Show booth, and answer their questions! Make sure you get their stamp when finished. Fill out your contact information, circle the prize you want and bring your completed book to the Saturday Afternoon Bash! A staff member will be there to collect it from you, and the winner will be announced at the reception! (You must be present to win!)

Test your Luck at Operation: On Saturday, go to the Grand Ballroom Foyer at 12:45 and see if you can 'operate' without the buzzer going off! The more times you do, the higher the prize you can win, up to $600! If you are good at operating, you will be given a ticket(s) to give to staff as you enter the Saturday Afternoon Bash! The winners will be announced during the reception! (You must be present to win!)

Safety's Saturday Afternoon Bash: Join us at the closing reception and drop your ticket in the hat as you enter! You will be given your ticket when you check in at registration! The winner will be chosen during the party and given $1000 cash!
